

direction of the apogee (aux) of the deferent. Letters in parentheses denote ecliptic longitudes. P (or M , in the case of the Moon) denotes the planet on its epicycle, the centre of which is O . For further information see J. D. North (1976), vol. iii, Appendix 29, from which these illustrations are taken.